

Report of Seminar on “Bangla Sahitye Gram”

Topic	Bangla Sahitye Gram
Organized by	Department of Bengali, Silda Chandrasekhar College
College/State/National/International Level	State Level
Date	19/01/2024
Number of Participants	148
Speaker/ Resource person	Dr. Srutinath Chakraborty, Former Professor, Department of Bengali, Vidyasagar University, West Bengal
Remarks/brief description	The seminar began with an inaugural song by the students of the department. Honourable Principal, Dr. Susanta Kumar Dolai, delivered the inaugural speech. Prof. Sanjoy Kumar Kar, Head of the Department delivered his speech on the topic. After that, Dr. Srutinath Chakraborty discussed about how rural landscape, with its simplicity, beauty, and socio-economic dynamics, has been deeply intertwined with the cultural and emotional fabric of Bengal, offering a rich tapestry for literary exploration. He also mentioned that bengali writers have immortalized the soul of rural Bengal, making it an inseparable part of the literary heritage. . In the valedictory session, Department expressed gratitude to the dignitaries, invited guests, the resource person for their significant role and active participation in making the seminar a grand success.

Some photos of the event

L.T. of Sanyal Kr. Kar 22/01/2024
 Coordinator of the Seminar

22/01/24
 Principal
 Silda CS College
 Silda, Jhargram