Remarks/brief description	The seminar began with an inaugural song by the students of the department. Honourable Principal, Dr. Susanta Kumar Dolai, delivered the inaugural speech. Prof. Sunil Kumar Mandi, Head of the Department, and the Organizing Secretary set the tone of the Seminar. After that our resource person Mr. Shyamcharan Hembrom discussed about Santali poetry literature and its rich and diverse tradition rooted in the culture and history of the Santali people. Mr. Baidyanath Hansda talked about how Sadhu Ramchand Murmu’s works depicted the struggles of the Santali people, including their battles for recognition, rights, and equality. Through his poems, Murmu sought to raise awareness about the issues of land alienation, exploitation, and marginalization that the Santals had faced under colonial rule and even in the post-independence period. Mr. Basudev Hansda mentioned that Sadhu Ramchand Murmu is regarded as a pioneering poet who contributed significantly to the development of modern Santali poetry. Finally, the Department thanked and congratulated all participants for their significant role and active participation in this event.
